

Fast lane

Why don't you look at me straight in the eyes?
Let me fix you baby one more time
Did you really eat a white rabbit?...run run run...
I can feel devils getting out of my head
You're like a young crazy young baby chasing your own tail
Hey run, baby run run on the fast lane
One for the money, two for the show

You come back in my head
Run on the fast lane

Now you leave me, right here, right now
In the middle of nowhere.
I can see devils sliding down your spine slow down
They're calling you in my head slow down
You're like a young crazy young baby chasing your own tail
Hey run, baby run run on the fast lane

I wanna change but everytime i try to lose you
Everytime I try to lose you for anyone else
Everytime I try to lose you you come back in my head
