

King from nowhere

I just wanna hear you cry, I wanna hear you scream
Calling your mother all day long
I just wanna see you tremble, I wanna hear the boom boom
I wanna hear you knocking waiting for me
Under the lights, you'll be blinded I wanna see you struggling
I wanna see you pleading I just wanna see you

I've been waiting so long, it's time to see your face and to see your fingers, I'm ready to touch you
I can only imagine you

I'm in a hurry to face you, with blood on your skin
I wanna feel the boom boom, face to face with you
Enjoy the last day inside, tomorrow is the last day
Tomorrow is the first day I just wanna see you

I've been waiting so long...

Now, here comes the rain, the descent
Here comes the storm
I will never see you again as weak and strong,
Like a king from nowhere

I've been waiting so long...
